Culminating a series of discussions having to do with the assignment of [REDACTED] Mr. Lloyd and I met with Mr. [REDACTED] in my office on 7 February 1956 at which time the following general procedure was agreed to:

a. [REDACTED] will be placed on a leave status effective on or about 13 February 1956 and will remain in this status until about 1 - 15 May 1956. (It is my understanding that [REDACTED] has approximately 45 days of accrued annual leave and that he is to have some medical attention during this period which will utilize approximately 15 to 20 days of his sick leave. This arrangement should, therefore, insure that he is carried in a leave status through the agreed period.)

b. I have assured [REDACTED] that his career with CIA will not be jeopardized by this action and that if prior to or at the conclusion of this period he elects to return to the Agency and pursue his career here I will insure that a suitable assignment is arranged for him.

c. In the event that [REDACTED] does elect to return to the Agency I have requested him to give me as much advance notice as possible in order that I might be in a position to work out an equitable and satisfactory arrangement for his reassignment.
